

Oliver's House recently received a cheque from Group Five, a building infrastructure and development company which sponsors various projects within the community. Oliver's House, which currently looks after 120 children in the Zenzele informal settlement, was one of the company's beneficiaries. Seen here are (from left): Refilwe Mokgope (public relations officer), Bernadette Oliphant (Group Five) and Terrence Ferreira (director of Oliver's House).

Got a story? Call Gareth on 425-0164

News

